Val and Abe,

The suggested times won't really work for me. I have medical appts. , travel, and family vacation scheduled up to July 8th . In the meantime, we are working on the rewrite of the NESHAP subpart W BID/EIA. Val, we did get your responses to the questions and I want to thank you

Non-responsive

On the conference call, I'd suggest the week of July 11th as my team should be fully available then.

Subject: Meeting

Abe,

As a follow-up to our last conversation, could you set up a conference call for Tuesday or Wednesday next week to discuss the schedule of first deliverables (outline) and how the outline will look like. I will like to get a couple of my colleagues involved.

Thanks
